CarInsurance.com's rate analysis finds Progressive has the cheapest car insurance rates in California. The insurer offers a full coverage policy with an average premium of $122 per month.

The average cost of car insurance in California is $176 per month for a full coverage policy. A full coverage policy includes liability insurance--required by law in most states--and optional coverage such as comprehensive and collision insurance, which comes with a deductible.

In addition to Progressive, Geico, Mercury and Travelers also offer low car insurance rates in California:

Insurance Company	Average Monthly Rates: Full Coverage
Progressive	$122
Geico	$133
Mercury	$135
Travelers	$170
Auto-Owners	$179
Auto Club Enterprises	$189

“Remember that insurance companies also offer cheaper policies for certain drivers,” says John McCormick, editorial director, CarInsurance.com. “And rates vary based on a number of factors such as a driver’s age, location, driving record, credit score, driving habits, and type of vehicle.”

Drivers in certain categories could see significant savings.

For instance:

- Married drivers pay 9% less than single drivers
- California drivers with clean records pay 67% less than drivers with a DUI
- California drivers in their 20s pay 46% lower rates for insurance than 16-year-olds
